DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group 4, claims 34-37 in the reply filed on 8/18/08 is acknowledged.

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: Figures 9A-9C, of the drawings submitted on 8/9/04, have 172-1 thru 172-8,110 as the reference signs. The specification appears to identify the features of these figures using 110, (correspond to 170) , 112-1 thru 112-8 (corresponds to 172-1 thru 172-78). The reference signs used in the drawings must agree with those used in the specification. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 34 is objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 34 uses the phrase “.. configured to..”. The subject matter recited after this phrase is not positively recited. Just because something is capable of doing does not mean necessarily that it is doing. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 34-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Varma et al. (US 2004/0213419).

Regarding claim 34, Varma discloses a video game controller (Figures 3 and 4), comprising:

a microphone affixed to the video game controller (Figures 3 and 4; page 3, ¶ 0052), the microphone configured to detect an audio signal that includes a target audio signal in a far field relative to the microphone and disturbance noise in a near field relative to the microphone (page 3, ¶ 0052-¶ 0053) ; logic configured to process the audio signal, the logic including, detection signal logic configured to generate a detection signal (noise reduction component , 308, Figure 3; page 4, -¶ 0056 –¶ 0057) and disturbance cancellation logic configured to remove disturbance noise from the audio signal through analysis of the detection signal (page 4, ¶ 0056 --¶ 0057).

Varma fails to disclose that the detection signal is generated through application of an even ordered derivative to the audio signal. The examiner asserts taking an even numbered derivative of a signal is well known in the art. It would have been obvious to modify Varma so that the detection signal is generated by applying an even order derivative to the audio signal to help approximate the sound field.

Regarding claim 35, Varma as modified discloses wherein the disturbance cancellation logic includes, logic for identifying if a signal sequence of the disturbance noise is associated with the target audio signal ( Varma, ¶ 0054 --¶ 0057)..

Regarding claim 36, Varma as modified discloses further comprising multiple microphones, wherein each of the multiple microphones is configured to independently identify whether the disturbance noise is above a threshold level ( Varma, ¶ 0054 --¶ 0057).

Regarding claim 37, Varma as modified fails to teach that the detection signal logic includes, downsampling logic configured to reduce an amount of data associated with the detection signal, as compared to the audio signal, by a factor of ten. The examiner asserts that downsampling is well known in the art. It would have been obvious to modify Varma as modified so that the detection logic includes downsampling logic for the benefit of reducing the data rate. The downsampling factor is a matter of design choice.
